

MYCOTOXIN ANALYSIS: A FOCUS ON RAPID METHODS

Kristine Wolf and Florian J. Schweigert

The Partnership for Aflatoxin Control in Africa (PACA) is a collaboration which aims to protect crops, livestock, and people from the effects of aflatoxins. By combating these toxins, PACA will contribute to improving food security, health, and trade across the African continent.

www.aflatoxinpartnership.org